July 16, 1940.

Mr. F. Leon Harris,
140 Union Ave.,
Asbury Park, N. J.

Dear Mr. Harris:

On the night of August 6, 1940, the NEWARK EAGLES will play a baseball game with the PHILADELPHIA STARS at Ruppert Stadium, Newark, N. J. for the benefit of the NEWARK COMMUNITY HOSPITAL. All the proceeds of this game will be used to purchase needed equipment for the hospital.

Our Committee is asking all of our colored morticians to take a box at this game, seating 16 at a cost of $12.00 or two(2) patrons tickets at $1.00 each. This Committee is composed of a group of civic minded citizens, anxious to improve the facilities of the hospital, so that our colored nurses, internes and physicians will have the benefit of the best in hospital training.

We are asking that you send your check at once to Mrs. Effa Manley, Newark Eagles Baseball office, 101 Montgomery Street, Newark, N. J. and tickets will be sent to you, and your name listed as a patron in our special score card.

Very truly yours,

THE COMMITTEE FOR BENEFIT OF THE COMMUNITY HOSPITAL.
